Dear Jeffrey,

sorry for my delay. I asked to the organizative secretariat a detailed list of costs of the conference, that you can find enclosed, together with a file with the abstracts, I am still collecting to put in our website.

I am very sorry for your disappointment, after the extraordinary support you gave to the congress. I sincerely apologize for my late information to you, due to the need to put together all the necessary data.

But the event was very very successful under all aspects and it is useless to confirm my great personal gratitude for making it possible. And I am sure the other friends and participants share it with me.

I hope to having provided sufficient information, but please tell me what else you think is of your further interest to know.

Warmest greetings,

Giuseppe
