Should I call her, or should Leanne?

Glad you are starting to feel better. As you requested, copies of the loan documents are being sent to you in a separate "secure" email. Upon receipt, you will be asked for a password; create one and the document will open.

Our offices will be closed on Monday, February 20th, in observance of the Presidents' Day holiday. Please call me on Tuesday, February 21, at [REDACTED] to discuss the delinquent status of your loan payments.

Thank you and I look forward to your call.

Linda,

I am back in an increasing capacity. Sorry for the delay in responding, but I had some medical issues that incapacitated me for a time. I cannot locate my copies of the loan agreement. Please email copies along with any guaranty associated with this obligation.

Thanks,

Steve Alexander
