Hi Jeffrey and Cecile,

Leslie at Integrity Defender has access now to the .org site and 6 others. They will be putting simple content on the site, starting tomorrow.

All links and images on on the site are critical because the .org site is on the first page and thus has the capacity to pull up all its content to the first pages as well.

Leslie stressed again that any new images and newsworthy press info that you could send me would be invaluable.

They will also connect the .org site to all of the public profiles that I set up (Google plus, linkedIn, facebook, twitter etc). The connection will start to pull up the public profiles as well.

Thank you for sending me photos and any news info.
