Because I am not sure if I'll be able to reach you later and in case if you go to bed at 7pm 🙄😬

Happy New Year Sneaky!

May the coming year bring you loads of health, love, happiness, prosperity and peace of mind.

May it shine to be the best yet for you and your loved ones.

🙌❤️🌟🌟2018🌟🌟❤️

On my personal behalf, Sneaky, I want to thank you for everything you have done for me through all 7 yrs that we are together. I told you these many times but I very grateful that despite my stubborn and difficult personality, you've been always there for me when I was at need and never turning me down...One day (hopefully very soon) I will find a way to give you back the same level of support (which you probably also tired hearing but its not just empty promises, I truly mean and I will!)

Your trust, support and believe in me made me who I am today: a confident, strong woman with education and a real-life goal and dreams! This 2017 year was particularly very fruitful for me (because of you!) I graduated from very good school and started to work at an organization which I could have only dream of a year ago and now I will be employed!!! THANK YOU!!!!

Sneaky, I also want you to know that no matter how many close friends I have today, you are the most precious for me. You are my family! And I hope that despite the future circumstances, distances and/or space, my friendship with you will grow only stronger.

I've been always inspired by and highly admired a rarity of your kindness and generosity to your friends and people who are or were at a need. Your intentions to help have been always heartfelt and free of any calculation. I don't know if you even think and realize the level of the impact you have had on other peoples lives...it's unmeasurable! For some, like me, it was a total life-changer... So I hope this 2018 year will be positive for you when you can harvest and enjoy all good things you've done for others! LOVE YOU!!!! 🙌❤️🔪
