attached is email whereby Brice, Arran and Karen feel they need to approve parts that Boscoe needs in order to repair equipment Boscoes first order was for approximately $300 that Craig and i approved
i believe Brices concern for over ordering is unwarranted and is a control issue arran who darren confirmed has been on vacation since saturday was on the island this morning interrogating Boscoe
Do we need to micro manage Boscoe or are you ok with Craig and i approving all parts Boscoe will be obtaining competitive quotes and submitting that with his requests is it ok to proceed in the manner?

Greetings Rich,

I received a phone call this morning from Brice directing me to send to him the AMEX parts order for the 2000 International Harvester truck.

My understanding regarding this order, and future parts orders, was that Boscoe researches and prepares the order, Boscoe or I send it to the vendor, who prepares a quote for review and approval by you/Craig prior to placing the order.

I told Brice that Jack is preparing the quote, but has not submitted it yet. I asked him if he normally receives the quote/order via you. He said no, and wanted himself and Arran to review the quote to make sure that Boscoe is not "over ordering". I told him the quote has not been sent as yet.

He has asked for the list of the parts.

Please advise. I will not forward anything to Brice until you have advised.
