

From: Robert Trivers <[REDACTED]>
To: Jeffrey Epstein <jeevacation@gmail.com>
Subject: Re: [REDACTED],
Date: Sat, 30 Dec 2017 14:28:02 +0000

---

his number, if it is useful to you: [REDACTED]

i only spoke about you briefly in the most general terms—one of the most brilliant minds i knew, broad and deep, originally a mathematician who then applied this talent to finance—only when he went on and on about his fear of lock-up et al did i say that BTW like myself Epstein had some experience with that—when i discovered he was overstating his experiences and possible future ones, i wish i had left the topic out

am safely in Jamaica and coming back to calmness

all best for the New Year

On Fri, Dec 29, 2017 at 9:43 AM, Robert Trivers <[REDACTED]> wrote:

between ourselves, i think Norman (1) causes unnecessary problems for himself, e.g. handing out a leaflet to prospective clients telling them to avoid this law firm and then doing so within the law offices and (2) overstates his jail experience; he first told me he had spent several weeks in jail—i thought, if Riker's island, you have reason to be scared— but no it was only two 18 hour arrests—PRISON for several misdemeanors—i thought prison was reserved for felonies and as you and i know country jail is a hell of a lot preferable to prison

am about to fly to Montego Bay