Jeffery;
Attach ideas are up for debate and not set in stone as yet. We are looking for your input.
We looked at outstanding work and matching staff with the understanding there are projects to be finished.
Also taken into consideration is that you do not want any work conducted in the front of the house for the first two weeks of June.
The release date memo has some projects listed.
Call to discuss when you are free.
Also tomorrow after the pour we can update you as to when temp concrete pad staff is leaving.
Craig
