Good meeting with Wurman and Rigby. If he plays it well he will get the money for all his projects. See below.

Dear Richard

It was great meeting you today, having heard and read so much about you. Whatever happens, I think that we are all more or less on the same page, so it all comes down to whether we can reach a sensible commercial arrangement or not.

I know you spent a bit of time with Debra after our meeting and I have spoken to her myself subsequently. I hope that after your meeting tomorrow morning, we will reach an agreement which I will entrust Debra to deliver upon. I am not sure if it will work but should we proceed, I will endeavour to come to your September event if I possibly can.

Best wishes

Peter
