We are 3 weeks into this and I am not receiving any response regarding our invoices. Please advise at once, as we are now 21 days past due. It is unfair and unrealistic to expect our firm (which as you know is very small) to work without money in the Trust Account against which we can bill, and to front costs, travel, expenses, and the like, and not be reimbursed as required.

Please advise at once as to the status of this invoice. Because you are not keeping the money in our Trust Account against which we can bill, as is required by our retainer agreement and is standard in the legal industry, we required payment upon receipt of this invoice, which was now 3 weeks ago.

I really do not want this to be an issue every month, as I do not like chasing down money from clients. There is a lot to do in the next few months on this case and as such we are going to require that the retainer agreement requisite of funds in our Trust Account against which we can bill be enforced.

Good day-

Please see attached invoice and note that because you are not keeping the money in our Trust Account against which we can bill, we are requesting payment upon receipt of this invoice. I tried to break things down into smaller, more detailed work as requested, and Jeffrey is aware that Debbie and I have about 90 hours in on researching and drafting the response to the Summary Judgment and the undisputed facts.

Of course, feel free to call me if you have any questions at all.
