Please instruct Deborah to send you the law, memo that she had written on your behalf, if she had done as i asked and transmitted the statute language to harry, this would have been easier. she said she didnt want to share work product. nonsense once you read the law it is clear that max overstepped his bounds, he again mentioned your increased expenses since you me valeria. . and I have yet to see back up to payments to the grandchildren or a true explannation why money was sent to the treasury directly and not to you, without express approval from you. the treasury is not a beneficiliary of the trust nor are your grandchildren. .

Thank you Max for the clarification.

Deborah, I'd be happy to talk to you about the question of who should serve as my co-trustee. I would need guidance from someone who is an expert in trust law and administration. Since Max cannot fill that role in this particular conversation, I will need to find another professional to advise me. I will begin my search process right away. When I have found someone, I will send a message of introduction to both of you and we can begin looking for a time that we can all talk.

I will get back in touch with you soon.

Thank you Max. I did not feel it necessary to include the fact that a successor that is agreeable to Harry and Noam needs to be appointed as I felt that to be obvious since Harry has the appointment power subject to Noam's approval.

Harry now that Max has offered this clarification please send me your availability to talk at a mutually convenient time on Monday and Tuesday.

Thank you,
Deborah

Harry and Deborah –

I am not sure how this misunderstanding has arisen but what I said to Harry and Rich in our call on Monday and what I said again to Deborah and Rich yesterday is not fully captured by the statement that "Your father has asked Max Kohlenberg to resign and he has agreed." What I said in both of those calls is that I have agreed to resign if Noam and Harry wish to name a successor to me and are in agreement as to who that successor should be.

Thank you for giving me the opportunity to clear up this misunderstanding.

I have not heard from Max that he has decided to resign. The last time I was told (by Noam, citing Richard) that Max had decided to resign, it was not the case.

Max, will you please clarify your intentions?

Dear Harry,

I am writing to introduce myself, and to schedule a call with you to discuss the change of independent trustee that your father desires with respect to the Carol Chomsky Marital Trusts. As you may know, I represent your father with respect to his beneficial interest in the Trusts, and I represent your father and his wife with respect to their estate planning matters.

Your father has asked Max Kohlenberg to resign and he has agreed. Under the terms of the trust you are to make the appointment of the successor independent trustee, subject to your father's approval.

Are you available to speak on Monday between 8:00 a.m and 11:30 a.m. Eastern or between 2:00 p.m and 6:00 p.m. Eastern, or after 8:30 p.m. Eastern, or on Tuesday any time at your convenience except from 2:00 - 3:00 p.m. Eastern? Please send me a time on Monday and Tuesday that is mutually convenient.

I look forward to hearing from you at your earliest convenience.

Thank you,

Deborah Pechet Quinan, Esq.
