oh god bless!! she overdone with email little bit, of course i personally will never charge you anything (you done much more for me when i was starving and homeless years ago, without taking advantages and regardless what you might think about me or talk about me now, I actually appreciate it and will NEVER forget). I have certain loyalties to people... as for the reservation expencies i will take care myself. for me relationships with people like you, [REDACTED] and Angelo are more important then 2000 dollars... hate when ppl argue... going to sleep and lets close the issue. have a good night ... i will deal with all tomorrow. [REDACTED] is very dear to me as well...pls dont get angry at anybody. xxx
