I don't understand your intent. why would it matter at this point one way or another? I only see you as trying to hurt our friendship again, you are making assumptions about my life , and appear unwilling to come clean with the past and make a plan, im not sure what has happened to you, i realize having to admit that the fund was not succeeding was difficult, that was due to market conditions, you and i are not subject to anything but your inability to be honest.

we are not fighting, you need to clear up the past and either make concrete plans for the future or lose me forever, you are behaving like a high school boy, this is beyond silly, you send me messages with the same question , don't come clean, and then send childish kisses. I am no longer amused,
