I assume you got my last email. I received a phone message from you while I was boarding a plane to Mexico. I am in Mexico till Monday night. If you want to email me some questions while I am here that might work. Otherwise we might be able to have a phone conversation after I return Monday night.

I assume you are aware that a report was sent by someone to two universities, relating to an event in Australia last year, and that both Universities independently concluded that the report was unsubstantiated and fabricated with malicious intent.

Dear Dr Krauss,

I can't seem to find a phone message from you. However, I'm happy to have an on-the-record conversation.

I'm sure your schedule is busy, so it might be best to arrange a time if you'd like to talk. I'm free today between Noon and 3pm Pacific, or after 4pm. Tue and Weds I'm free most of the day.

Sincerely,

Peter Aldhous

Hi. Further to the phone message i left on Friday, I learned from my university about your request. Happy to talk to you about it if you wish.

My cell is [REDACTED]. I will be traveling for much of next week but the phone should work.
