Hi Jeffrey.. say something.. I want to help you too and introduce new smart people or PAs, just need clearance on what you are currently looking for.

Tell me what you think : I talked to [REDACTED] that I want to pass the Bar and be a lawyer in USA and make better money than in the VC right now. She said that I can become a partner (VC partner makes more money than lawyer) for the new fund and she wants me to work with her and in her team. She said that I never had a proper career and she gives me a chance to build one (but its not my expertise to be a VC). To build one, I need a leader who believes in me and helps me grow. It is her. She keeps on saying that she sees in me a huge talent and I need to stay with her and build what we are building now, instead of having a boring life of a lawyer.

Well, I still want to pass the Bar and be her attorney in the future when I learn more in American law. I think that Bar is a safe way to be sure I can still be an attorney if she decides im not good enough to be a VC.

Anyway, I am determined to take this Bar, but do not want to dissappoint someone who believes in me so much!

Good Afternoon [REDACTED]

Thank you for your reply! I will do my best to explain via email, this may be better suited for a phone call.

If you enroll in the February review course, you will have access to the full course content in December and continue that access until approximately early March (at that time the course closes). You will then enroll in the one-time Guarantee course for the July exam. You will have access to the Early Start bar review until the full content opens again in May through approximately early August. You would want to send your books in for the refundable book deposit of $250 after the February course closes and request the updated version for the July course.

You can enroll for the regular bar review course at this page: <http://www.barbri.com/states/california/> or by completing the attached enrollment form.

The $800 discount is available for both courses until November 30th, after that date the tuition will increase.

If you feel you are still confused about the course and my answers to your questions, please don't hesitate to reach out via phone, [REDACTED].

Please let us know if you have additional questions.

Thank you,

Tina Lundell
