that is not what he said , he said

he represented Noam in the past and of course would resign if Noam wanted him to. . it was already in the context that there was a conflict with the children. this all depends on Harry. sorry, .

Good morning Noam –

I'm afraid that Rich may have misunderstood me in our conversation with respect to my serving as trustee of the marital trusts. What I said to Rich was that I would never want to serve as trustee of a trust if the beneficiaries did not wish me to serve as trustee, and I was explicit in stating that I would resign as trustee of these trusts if you and your children no longer wish me to serve as trustee. I'm sorry if there was some misunderstanding between Rich and me, but I have not asked your children if they wished me to resign and have not (as of yet) given consideration to whether or not I would resign if you wish me to resign and one or more of your children wishes me to continue to serve as trustee.

As you will note, I am again copying Deborah on our exchange.

Thanks,

Max

Max,

Could you confirm formally to Harry that you agree to stand down as Trustee, as you informed Richard Kahn.

Thanks.

Noam
