Dear Jeffrey,

I am writing to you with my pleasure and a desire to continue our discussing about a design of your room. You mentioned that you are interested in my private design services and I am still wondering: "Is it still real to do?" I could do it for you by proper way and I think my design vision will be worth your attention but first I need to find out more about details of your apartment that you are going to take care of. Could you send me the drawings and project documentation of your room and describe a style that you want to use and approve there? I am also interested in terms and conditions of our small business opportunity. Wouldn't you be polite to tell me more about it? I attached some files of my personal background for your consideration. There are some handmade examples which has been created by me some time ago for a couple of local projects here in Ukraien. Take attention on it please. I am looking forward for your detailed answer.

Respectfully,
[REDACTED]
