After three days of trying to schedule a call with Jim from Crest regarding your New Mexico pool pak I began a call with him at 3:30pm that lasted 90 minutes.

Tom called at 2pm and said we needed to speak today. In addition information that I requested from Tom and his team on Tuesday morning at 10:30am I received at 3:53pm before a proposed 4:00pm call. It is impossible for me to review 2 yrs of financial statements and another schedule 7 minutes before a call

By the way I briefly reviewed docs and it appears that IGY booked a 247,000 gain on sale of 50% to you (see page 32 of pdf in next email) in addition to taking a 253,125 acquisition fee (see excel schedule). That totals 500,000 in fees for them before you entered deal with 7.5% management fees...

There was a call scheduled for 4:00 pm today as between management and the accounting people at IGY and your acctg people who have been tendering the questions and collecting data. I am told that they did not call at the appointed time. Management has told me that they have left several messages for your guys now but that they have not heard back. I certainly hope everything is ok with them. Just so you know that they are ready with the data that is responsive to all of the inquiries they understand to be open at this time.
