Dear Jeffrey, how are you?

You probably received a "save the date" for the event on June 6th. As I mentioned in my email, I have been involved with Thorn Tree Project for few years now, helping them raising money to educate the children of traditional nomadic families in Northern Samburu, Kenya.

This is a volunteering organization that a dear friend of mine started about 10 years ago when the tribe saved her in the middle of the desert.

There are few ways we can help, and little money goes a long way there.

[REDACTED] writing you wondering if you would be interested to support a child or even provide a scholarship to one or more.

Here is how:

1 school uniform: $8

1 treated mosquito net: $10

Breakfast for 1 child for 1 year: $20

1 metal bunk bed: $140

1 camel (almost 2,000 gallons of milk per year): $200

1 solar panel w/battery for dorm: $800

1 scholarship for technical school: $2,55 (covers over 2 years for one child)

1 scholarship for high school: $5,000 (covers over 4 years for one child)

Attached is some narratives and fact you can read if interested.

You can make a donation online or if you prefer a check I can help facilitate that:

Let me know if you are interested!

Thanks for your help!!!
