Cecile,

With regard to fuel, as I think you know, we informally and unilaterally began selling fuel to the LSJ vessels at approximately cost (as best we can calculate) a few months ago. AYH has an agreement with Puma Energy that requires us to pay for fuel on a fairly short term basis. If we extend credit to the LSJ vessels, what assurance can you provide that fuel will be paid for timely so that we can pay Puma on time? We don't have a lot of comfort extending credit when substantial rent payments ($54,000 currently) in arrears. Help?

Frank
