had a 45 minute conversation with Larry beginning at 3 Pm pst. Many questions were raised and Larry kindly said he would get back to me. I told him that this reminded me of the story where the woman walked in to find her husband in bed with her best friend, upset she ran quickly over to the side table, grabbed a gun from the top drawer, pointed at her own head, and said, after i shoot myself, i will shoot both of you. Larry didn't find it that funny. I cautioned against memorilizing preliminary ideas in writing as a written record is usually extremely counter productive. Larry said we might be able to seperate the timing of initial email from the ultimate mechanics. A good idea for many reasons. The idea of a new investment fund, Larry understood, and immediatley grasped the difficulty if Bill were not to be involved. I confirmed that I will come on Aug 8, Larry suggested skype before. ? We talked about level of help Bill was willing or able to agree on, and I asked if he could better define the future restrictions for me. Loyalty and friendship here are both paramount and obvious, though- Larry in response to a direct question, and much to my surprise and considerable dismay, stated that "Yes, Boris had done something improper.
