Dear Jeffrey,

This is my 3rd and final year on the board of the St. Thomas Historical Trust. During that time I have raised several hundred thousand dollars which has largely gone toward restoration projects on Hassel Island.

The island is a National Park with many significant historical monuments. The Trust regularly brings high school kids over for tours and to educate them on the maritime history of Hassel Island and the port of Charlotte Amalie.

I know you said when we met a few years ago that you give exclusively to math and science related endeavors. However I figured it could not hurt to ask you again if you would consider giving a donation to the Trust.

We are currently raising money for the Garrison house which is in need of a new roof and dire stabilization. I have attached a picture of the building in question.

I appreciate your consideration and will understand if it is not of interest.

Best Regards,

Filippo
