Good night boss

I spoke with Larry about picking up the tiki hut audio equipment.

James did make a couple recommendations about upgrading the theater McIntosh receiver and the projector for the Apple TV 4K to work. I am not sure if these items were approved for purchased.

The rest of the items like wire, extra speaker connectors, data cables, etc... was order and I believe they will be loaded on the plane. If not, then it would come via Tropical Shipping.

Quick update flag pole pool:

The was no progress today. I was out finding vendors that carried the speaker connectors that the LSJ speakers use that I needed. I was lucky and did find some later in the afternoon. I was able to secure them and will be on island tomorrow. I will update on all progress.

Regards

Jruan
