In this situation where Carlos does not feel it is safe to cross, do we keep the crew in the harbor area on a wait and see?

Danny is there and I asked him who could come over to do indoor work since landscaping would be a washout .

This points to a need to have rain day projects

Will put this into the programming I am drafting

Just wanted to update you. The weather forecasters seem to be a little off the mark this morning.
Looking at radar and satellite, the storm looks like it is going to pass much closer than forecasted. I re-secured the boat and had a drive around. A few trees down but nothing too bad. Roads are getting in pretty rough shape. I'll let you know as things progress.
