Here's what I could find out (and it just took more time online than would take you to drive from Oxford Airport to the farm). We tried this last time and it didn't work. All the pad are private. Go to the airport or even better, take a nice scenic drive.

Last time, we checked and couldn't find a viable helipad that you could use. There's are a couple of registered pads in Bethlehem, but Oxford is only a 35 min drive. (A lot less time than making arrangements for a helicopter).

This is the closest: [REDACTED] 3
