Dear Mr. Jeffrey,

Actually I was so stressed with all placement exams and meeting new professors that I haven't even time to contact the dormitory and ask if they still have free space available. Today I have one more placement exam and tomorrow I have a very important orchestra placement audition. Last couple of days has been so stressful for me, I cannot even explain how exhausted do I feel.. everything is so complicated..so new and different...

thank you for your kind email. I assume you have decided to stay in [REDACTED] and not move to dorm. I will give the scholarship to someone else on friday.
