So there is no misunderstanding. I am an friend , always first. I view my role as an advisor to provide my best advice. no restrictions. I am neither politically sensitive or correct. That being said, after making my points , backed by experience or advocacy, should you choose to go a different way , I will help as best as i can. As a mathematician , many times after working on a formula for months , non stop, if it turns out that on page 203 that I made an error , there is no emotional reaction. it just means i made an error. start again
