You should realize david lies about everything

First

I needed 800 k we had made a earlier budget months ago that showed - if we opened months ago -I could have made it with 750k - david kept using this budget - I let it go

What david did not share with you is that because of such a late opening - I have given him an additional budget -of a loss of 175k to get us to march - tmi - but opening so late gives you zero momentum into first 3 months of 2018

This has still not ben addressed

Because david has told everyone months ago we would have the needed funding - we where told to start to ramp up - which increased payroll - I put the brakes on. From additional employees since zero funds have come in - we need another 20 +employees to train and be ready to serve guests- a 3-4 week process

Jeffrey- this is where david just lies

So let's say funding does not happen for another 10 weeks and I draw $20 k a week for needed payroll - so in theory I drew down another 200k and now david thinks the restaurant only needs 400k - he is a total idiot

The restaurant budget is based upon completion of construction and the ability to seat both units- lobby and basement - yes the basement can drag for 2 weeks after the opening of the lobby restaurant

I have not pulled my liquor license nor will I till the restaurant account Is funded with 750k - I'm not going on the hook to be responsible for shortfalls in that restaurant LLC as it's solely in my name - nor am I going to beg david for funds

I have told him many times - I will not open with out proper funding

Sorry for the story - but this is how it plays out

I will send you shortly which items are actually due - work complete as most of that list are past due accounts
