I'm so sorry. The weekend got away from me. I would love to meet you one of these trips, but in all honesty, I'm not sure how we were connected. Do you know? Who is [REDACTED]? I'm not sure how I met her?

Dear Sara,

I am heading up to Cambridge for the first time this weekend to visit [REDACTED] for Parent's Weekend. If you have any time perhaps we can just meet on campus and say "hi" on either Friday afternoon or Saturday afternoon. I know there are a lot of events on the schedule for the parents. I haven't really looked at it yet, but I assume I will go to a few of them.

Fondly,

Eva

Hi Sara,

[REDACTED] lives in Canada.

I would love to at least say "hi" during parents weekend. I have made no plans so far so I don't know when I am coming up, but I will definitely reach out to you when I know the logistics. Looking forward to meeting you.

Best,

Eva

Thank you for the introduction [REDACTED]. Can you remind me how we have met?

Eva,
Thank you for the nice email. I live in Chicago, but do get to NY a few times each year. As of now, I don't plan to be there until the end of April or early May. I would love to meet for coffee when I do come.

I actually saw [REDACTED] last weekend. We were in Cambridge for my husband's 30th reunion from Harvard. We will be back in 2 weeks for a Bar Mitzvah and then again parent's weekend. Would you want to set a time to meet parent's weekend?

[REDACTED] lives in Maer. Where does [REDACTED] live?

Sara

Eva and Sara, I believe you two rock stars have a lot in common - aside from gorgeous daughters starting at Harvard. I have left [REDACTED] to reach out [REDACTED]. And I do hope you will have a chance to meet. Warmest wishes, [REDACTED].
