Danny said the engineering lights are on a timer, I will ask him again to turn them completely off.

Should Jermaine come out to the island with Sean from A+ Security to take a look at the speakers?

I will work on getting Danny a Landline first thing Monday morning.

If the switch inside control any of the lights outside, I may have turned it on by accident when I painted the switch. Sorry.

Hey Bossman,

Mr. Fraguela said that the original tile on the steps are 14 inches and the tiles we have on top of the engineering building are 8 inches.

If we use our tiles the grout will not match the original style, Should we order 14 inch tiles for the steps?

Please advise,
Ann R.
