As Michigan is her first choice she did not apply for early decision to any other university as this would bind her if she was accepted. Michigan has rolling admissions so they can let you know right away.

She has also has taken the highest level Spanish offered and is also doing well in the humanities. Massachusetts Minnesota and Michigan are three main areas where ice hockey for girls is prevalent. Out of these choices U of Michigan offers a competitive club program and a good education. I do not think division 1 or 3 hockey would be a good decision as it is a full time commitment that I would not recommend for her if she could go to Michigan.
