I have discussed it with him and a few others . Their concern was not having a structure to make quality giving decisions . Thats why the marriage is elegant . You and I need only a few hours . They have over 100 billion now , and I project that will double in two years given current plans that I can walk you through.

I should understand better what I should do here.

Should I approach Leon specifically about doing a DAF?

I would like to do a few of them on a private basis and see how it goes.

I should start with the people who are most open minded to the construct.
