In preparation for sat breakfast at 9. You need to take some decisions. If you want me to take control . my fees are my fees. like your rents are your rents. . I have a limited amount of time, as do we all. I believe in the end , your estate will have less money and certainly less robust. without my help. much less. I know you respect my judgment (like the joke , but i knew where to knock) in thi limited and complex area. and I am respectful of your current circumstances . I am aware that you hate this whole process. its understandable. . your issues are unique and dangerous. . If you prefer that i do not take full control., but merely act as an advisor to your group, in a limited . capacity, and not take responsiblity for its results but offer my suggestions to others . I would do that for 15 million . I don;t think it is the wise decision but in trying to reach an accomodation . so that you feel free to call on me , I am willing. but It must be accompanied by airtight documents that you are aware that I am only consulting and have no authority, but to attempt to guide the process. Your nephews have zero experience in this area. . they are people you trust. I would suggest you set aside your paranoia and engage joels help. along with terje. they would act as a vetting commitee. I would suggest you settle up now with Marla and abigail. not waiting for someone else to have the battle. allocate some of your resources to helping your personal needs. re do your inverstmnet portfolio that has outstanding obligtations. tax ramifications, and trust issues. . Ellen is a great plumber. you should convene a small group of the people you trust and come to a consensus on guardiansip, on your health plans, your future role in boston property, us news daily news. . take care of your health. devote more time to yourself than to your buisnesses , you already have enough money, . making more is just a bad habit. . see the best doctors. . talk to the top researchers. . you are well respected and can get assistnace with regard renes future education , health . financail oversight. see you sat. .
