Jeffrey

[REDACTED] thing is due to her being overdue. I cannot control this. Rich Kahn was also on to her and had no different result from mine.

When did I look stressed. (I have a feeling I know where this is coming from)

I have Never had any instruction about kitchen cushions(this is the first I am hearing of it)

The bag you told me to do at the shoemaker. I did it. You have zero instruction that I should source a fabric for it until it was already done.

I have collected the carpets, or had them sent to me as soon as they have come into the vendors.

no you were going to give me prices for teak root tables? you tell me you are soooooo busy, you look stressed and in the end, including the kitchen , no cushions have been made , the bag is a waste of time and money, the carpets are not yet here, [REDACTED]'s stuff way overdue, and measure from things actually done. i can't figure out how you are spending your time

Please see email below. Our last correspondance after you told me :

jean luc will go to bali before xmas for us

I have since made contact with two 3rd party shippers (not related to the manufacturers but recommended by them) one has a warehouse in case we want to source from many vendors and one does not (so they cant store for us)

I have not been looking into furniture since you told me Jean Luc is going. Perhaps this was incorrect on my behalf.

Can you please instruct including my question below from the 21st

'but 12-15 pots only take up one quarter of container. Do you mean we will fill it with other things?'

I have been dealing with another supplier regarding the palm pots ($145 for 6.56 '). They respond quickly to my emails.

She gave me the following info

12 x 2m Palm pots are 6.5 Cubic meters..

Shipping to Miami $1900.00

Transit time 5-6 weeks

You may wish to consider a 20ft Container

30 cubic meters

Shipping to Miami $4750.00

Transit Time 4-5 weeks

So it looks like we should definitely be there to fill a container.
