If anyone knows the feeling of depression well it would be me.

I am not depressed, actually quite the opposite.

I wake up every day happy and grateful for everything I have. I have a strong sense every day that we only have a certain number of them and I want to experience it to the fullest (a feeling I have never had before)

I enjoy meeting people and love spending time with my friends.

I am back in yoga and enjoying it and enjoying the pool to work with my foot.

I am sleeping well and have a good appetite.

I think the issue may be more along the lines of perhaps I have very poor time management, or have possibly not put good enough organizational structures and routines into place, I am working on my own so maybe if I am weak in these areas I dont notice it. Perhaps also when . (i am not sure, these are just ideas)

Regarding your 3 points above.

Fabrics

What fabrics are outstanding that I still need to source? I have for bag, red for island, and I sent a lot of outdoor fabrics down on one of the trips. Please let me know if you want more of any of these I will continue.

Carpets

We now have all outstanding samples for Gulfstream.

Waiting on color direction from you for gym carpet.

Outstanding is blue and white rugs for dressing on LSJ. I am looking for cotton as you were not happy about silk not being a very white white not sure why foot has any relation to accutane? more concerned about depression anxiety, ? we should speak today, I have little bali info. carpets take no time for 3 weeks, and fabrics little. though you say you are constantly working on these issues, .

Bali

That's it!! I need to see a dermatologist for pimples and pigmentation. Who do you think for the pigmentation? My dr Orentreich or dangene? Pimples maybe [REDACTED] because Orentreich never gives me anything. I think I need antibiotics, I don't think I can take accutane with my foot still sort if healing. I wish!!! If we don't do something fast you will be stuck with me forever.
