max was asked by you for 500k. nothing has happened. / deborah as your attny should see it gets done. including possibly removing max. . but your children , however unpleasant it might sound seem unfortunatley to not like the idea. the reason for asking for the money was to discover what things were really standing in your way. . something very odd noam. deborah as your attny should be all over this. . asking max. offering you suggestions. et.

Just found this. I suppose this is what you are referring to in the letter I just answered. Still not clear to me what the call with Deborah should be about. Should she be brought into this discussion with Max?

I was thinking to respond briefly to Max's letter, but would like you to have a look before I send it and tell me what you think. In a few minutes

I didn't hear from you about this, and would like to what is happening in this matter. I would like to get on with my life and work without delay. I've worked hard for 70 years, put away a substantial sum of money. I surely have the right to access it. Could you let me know where this stands.

Forgive me for asking Noam, but did you mean $500,000, or $50,000?

Thanks,

Max

Dear Max,

I would like to ask for a distribution from one of the marital trusts, for $500,000, to deal with current expenses of mine.

Thanks for your consideration

Noam
