Mr. Epstein after checking all the furniture books. I found a picture of a black small cabinet with gold trim the doors were not red .It was sitting on a table at one time under the paintings on the east wall of the living room. There is also a picture of it sitting behind the statue of the demonic looking man that is now on the main stair case . Is this the piece that belongs to the desk? I searched all the storage cabinets and and inside all living room large cabinets could not find this piece . It was not logged into any furniture book. I hope this helps track it down. Merry Christmas Richard.
