Tax return FY 2012 has investment interest deduction of $5.75MM which is derived from two BOFA loans. I have bank annual interest forms that show amounts for loan 0031-5 $2.85 and loan 0049-7 $2.9MM. Loan documents not in file I asked controller to reach out to EA once she came out of meeting. I know art loan is included in loans above, I understand Starfire boat loan to have originated in 2013 and Starfire acquired in 2011 without debt. I will confirm which loans these are in AM. I suspect all art debt and no plane debt I understand from Tom that no plane deductions would be claimed until FAA charter registration changed to 135.
