(should I make mention of our loss in confidence after learning of the large repair scheme that was withheld until after acceptance of the LOI? or explain that verbally?)

Good afternoon Ms. Zipporah Marmor and Mr. Mathew Redling,

Pleased be advised that we are no longer interested in pursuing the purchase GV serial number 506 at this time.
Thank you for your efforts.

FYI. Amanda Kirby from DB advised yesterday afternoon when I called about the $250,000 deposit wire transfer that the wire was going to be completed by the end of the day. When I called her this morning to find out why she did not give me a fed reference number she called back and told me that the wire had not gone out because there is a bank wide hold on all wire transfers to Insured Aircraft Title Service. When I asked her why there is a hold she told me that she believes that IATS was cited for wiring funds in connection with an arms transaction. She had no details, but that is what she told me. Amanda is trying to get an exception because our wire transfer request states on its face clearly that it is a deposit on the purchase of a GV aircraft. Amanda is trying to get the exception but does not know if she will be able to do so. We could Fed Ex a check, but that does not deal with the issue of having to wire the balance of the funds to this title company if we ever were to close.

Do I call Zipporah and tell her that we need to use another title company for the deposit and tell her why?

Given the comments that we just got from Larry about his conversation with Zipporah and her trying to pressure us and giving us a tiny inspection Window, do I hold off from doing anything?

Please advise.
