Exhibit Room:

We are putting together a schedule of when interested attendees can speak with you about your displays. Please contact [REDACTED]

Other issues:

If you know of any Gathering contributors who haven't received an invitation yet, due to either a bad address or address change, please have them contact [REDACTED] for their invitation and log on information.

If you submitted a candidate and would like to know if they were accepted, please also contact [REDACTED].

G4G Experience (Exhibition):

Similar to G4GX we're working on a separate room to showcase puzzles, artwork and other objects. If you are interested or have any questions, please contact [REDACTED].

Gift Exchange:

For first time attendees to a Gathering 4 Gardner conference, the gift exchange was established as something you would personally give to Martin Gardner. Prior to Martin's passing, he received a copy of everything in the gift exchange. We continue that tradition and encourage your participation. If there are less participants in the gift exchange than the quantity received, extras will be donated to local schools.

More information and examples can be located on www.gathering4gardner.org.
