Nice Melinda quotes (from an article). I don't understand !

A separate article invites readers to share inspiring quotes from the summit. At the top of the list is Melinda Gates' statement, "I don't want to live in a world that doesn't let the other half of us do what we ought to in life." Also included: "If we don't empower women, we don't allow them to unlock the potential of themselves and their children."

If you can convince Elon musk to fund (huge credibility) and help me attenuate Greg I think we can do it.

16 months could go to 37 african countries. The rest would be easier over time. Will need to secure "landing rights" but could also package sovereign lending pkg for gateway (base station) build out in each. Might be able to also get a deal through the AU.

I need a real title or the leaders won't listen to me but you are right ceo is gross. President might be good. Would need a reasonable ceo who wouldn't get in the way.

When can we start?
