Hi Jeffrey - was away from computer - sorry - how is your back doing? I just saw a computer scientist with an AP canal diameter of about 2 mm at L4-5 - only hurts after 30 mins of driving, no back pain, no other symptoms, normal exam...I'm working on my Preface, reading other prefaces - the one in Nietzsche's first book - "The Birth of Tragedy Out of the Spirit of Music" - takes the cake - Have you seen that one? I did not know he was composing at 13, still making "demo" scores in his 30s, and today has a dozen or so compositions on Spotify!...

how does this Thursday or next Sunday look for a Skype? - Best, Mark
