Hi there Jeffrey! Hope this message finds you. Well, so much has happened since I last connected with you. I am married. Can you imagine? I have never been happier. My husband is the only man who fully and totally understands me. I will not go into details but I am pretty sure you understand what I mean. He has 4 brothers, one of which went to MIT and now he has 2 nephews and a niece who are studying at MIT now. We were at his brother's birthday party the other night. He was a rower who was on the team from MIT to go to the Olympics in 1980. http://www.mlive.com/sports/ann-arbor/index.ssf/2013/10/photo_gallery_-_um_professor_a.html

Proudly sporting Olympic ring ankle socks with "Team 1980" in red, white and blue, six of the nine men, including Everett, were members of the 1980 U.S. Olympic 8-man rowing team that never had a chance to compete in the Games.

Anyway, Jeff, I just wanted to touch base with you. I am so happy that you are working on the cure for Melanoma. My mother died of that when she was only 49. We were in Nebraska at the time and nobody knew anything about cancer. I am going to be 60 years old in January. But I have never felt better, sexier, more energetic. It is amazing. Our wedding just happened on July 27th. My sister who lives in Italy was here with her husband and my dad who is 93 also came. He lives in Arizona with my brother. If you are curious what I look like these days, check out our wedding site:

ginamarriesherb.wix.com/27julywedding BTW, I look pretty tame in these pics!

You will see Herb, my husband easily. He is 6 ft 8. He is an architect and an amazing man who definitely knows how to handle me. LOL He is an inventor, web designer, furniture designer also.

BTW...he knows every little secret about me and loves me all the more for my crazy life. My son, Adam, is now in Texas in boot camp for the air national guard. He wants to be a fighter pilot.

He has been there for 4 weeks. He tells us that it is the most difficult thing he has ever done in his life. I am sure it is! My daughter, Marina, is in the bar and hospitality business. she want to open her own bar some day. I am sure she will. She is smart, beautiful and has a great heart. Like me! Ha ha!

So how about you? Do you ever get to Boston? It would really be great if you let us know you were coming. We could show you around Boston in a way you may not know.

Well, just to add to the stuff we are doing now, we just opened a 2500 SF shop which has a web site as well. It is called "Past Prezence". the website is pastprezence.com

We are also listing many antiques on a website out of NYC called "Lofty"

The founder, Mark is from Boston. We are also opening a storefront on 1stdibs in the next week or so to sell some of my huge Chinese Art collection.. Over 5000 pieces.

Jeff, please don't be a stranger. Write me back or call me. I still remember your number in my head. [REDACTED] right?

My number is [REDACTED] Maybe there is something I can do to help you in any way. :)

Best, and so happy to write to you, your friend, Gina
