Cecile:

I hope you are doing well and enjoying the remaining months in your role as Frist Lady of the Virgin Islands. I know that Mr. Epstein conveyed that he was not interested in pursuing support of the medical school at this time. However, our Interim Dean for the Medical School, Dr. Benjamin Sachs is acquainted with individuals at Harvard who know Jeffrey and he is interested in meeting him. Dr. Sachs is the former Dean of Tulane Medical School and a Professor and administrator at Harvard Medical School.

I have copied Dr. Sachs on this email so that he can be contacted directly if Jeffrey is willing to meet with him. Dr. Sachs has done a wonderful job helping us develop a very creative medical school curriculum. I believe Jeffrey will enjoy meeting him.

Your assistance would be appreciated in facilitating a meeting.

Thanks

David

Mrs. de Jongh:

President Hall will adjust his schedule to be available at a convenient time for Mr. Epstein next week from Tuesday – Friday. With respect to Friday, December 20th, the President has a 2:30pm board meeting and is unavailable at that time. President Hall would still like to meet with Mr. Epstein in person if that is at all possible. If not convenient due to Mr. Epstein's travel and other commitments, President Hall can be available by phone as well.

I trust the above guidance provides more flexibility in planning.

Regards,
Una

Good afternoon Ms. Dyer,

Unfortunately, Mr. Epstein will be out of the Territory on Monday. Mr. Epstein indicated that he would not mind speaking to Dr. Hall on the phone next week. If you would not mind, please give me several options in terms of dates and times and I can get Mr. Epstein to choose a date and time that works best.

With warm regards,

Cecile

Good Afternoon Mrs. de Jongh:

I am following-up on the below email and Mr. Epstein's availability on Monday, December 16th to meet with President Hall.

Thank you for your guidance on the above.

Good Morning Ms. de Jongh:

Please note that President Hall is on St. Croix today and isn't expected back until this evening. He is available however tomorrow at 5: [REDACTED]. While President Hall's Friday afternoon is already booked, we can make some adjustments in his afternoon schedule if there is a time on Friday afternoon that works for Mr. Epstein. President Hall is also available on the Monday, December 16th at 1pm albeit the University is closed and the more informal meeting can occur at the President's Guest House. We apologize for the limited flexibility in the President's schedule. Given that it is the last week before the University closes for its recess, the President's schedule has been inordinately booked in finalizing 2013 matters and commitments.

Thank you for your guidance on the above and patience in the scheduling of a mutually convenient time.

Regards,
Una C. Dyer

Good morning All,

Jeffrey said that he can drop by today at 11:30 AM on his way from the airport. Does this work?

With warm regards,

Cecile

Dear Cecile,

I heard back from Ms. Dyer.

Dr. Hall has a Board meeting this Thursday at 2:30pm and is unavailable to meet at that time. Also, Ms. Dyer reminded me that final exams have concluded, so there are no classes in session. The third week of January would be the earliest to actually see a math or science class in action.

Kindly advise if the Monday, December 16 @ 1:00pm meeting time might work for Mr. Epstein. Alternatively, Dr. Hall can also be available this Thursday at 5:30pm. Please let me know if either of those options work.

My best,

Dionne
