your accounts were frozen yesterday and that is why i called you after not hearing from you for 2 weeks after i called you foreign IP explanation makes no sense - you are traveling and no access to trade this account?? please call and resolve now as you told me it would be done yesterday you need to be more accountable for this account and its liquidation !! jee would be furious if he were aware of this accounts are all frozen. Can't get on accounts from a foreign IP address. I think that by you trying to get on the accounts, it refroze the accounts and won't let me on them until I get to my own computer which will be Monday. That's the IP address that they recognize
