once harry and max step down , all will be ok. my concern is that this is where the rubber meets the road with regard the 529 accounts , not sure if there was resolution.? the amounts from the trust say were for taxes and paid directly to the Us treasury. that is unusual. as the treasury is not a beneficiary. normally it would have been paid to noams account alone.

The only discussion, by email, was about shifting the distribution from one grandchild to another. Valeria will send you the correspondence. No other authorization in writing, and I have no recollection of verbal authorizations.

We're still trying to clarify the alleged distributions to me from the marital accounts. According to Deborah, these were to pay our taxes. We received no notification of this, and so far haven't been able to find out, from the accountant, whether our payment of taxes was correspondingly reduced. We wrote to ask him 12 days ago, but no response yet.

I wrote to the three children about authorizing Max to step down as trustee of the marital trusts.
