Rich and Jeffrey,

In the email below that the director of development at Harvard Medical School requested that the terms she attached to her email be used for the pledge. I have made a few modifications to those terms, and my modified version is attached to this email. To summarize the changes, first, I changed the "Donor" from "Leon Black Family Foundation" to "Leon D. Black and/or Leon Black Family Foundation."

Second, I changed the language in the third paragraph from:

The Donor intends to give $2,000,000 to Harvard Medical School in two equal installments according to the schedule below:

No Later Than	Dollar Amount
December 31, 2014	$1,000,000
December 31, 2015	$1,000,000

EFTA01003368

To:

The Donor hereby irrevocably pledges and promises to pay $2,000,000 to Harvard Medical School in two equal installments according to the schedule below:

No Later Than	Dollar Amount
December 31, 2014	$1,000,000
September 30, 2015	$1,000,000

Note that the changes to that paragraph are deleting the phrase "intends to give" and replacing it with "hereby irrevocably pledges and promises to pay" and changing the due date of the second $1MM payment from December 31, 2015 to September 30, 2015.

Finally, I changed the signatory from "Leon D. Black MBA '75" to "Leon D. Black MBA '75, individually and as President of Leon Black Family Foundation"

Jeffrey, please advise you are ok with using Harvard's terms as so modified by me..

Alternatively, I could make my form the operative document and incorporate some of the terms that are contained in the Document the director of development provided. Please let me know what you prefer.

Jeffrey, I have also attached the description that the Director of Development provided regarding Church Labs. Is it ok for Rich to forward this to Eileen?

Thanks.

Dear Richard,

Thank you so much for your patience with us. I really appreciate it.

Attached please find a narrative about George Church's work. I've also attached gift terms that we would appreciate if Mr. Black would sign just so that there is no discrepancy at all about where the gift should go. You needn't put this document in the mail - a scanned copy with his signature sent to me via email will suffice.

Below are the Wire Instructions

Bank Wire Instructions

Please send gifts for Harvard University that are being transmitted by bank wire to:

Bank of America
100 Federal Street
Boston, MA 02110
President & Fellows of Harvard College, RSO account
Account # [REDACTED]
Ach ABA: [REDACTED]
Wire ABA: [REDACTED]
Swift Code [REDACTED]

Attention: Harvard Medical School, Pledge Payment for the Genomics and Synthetic Biology Research Fund ("the Fund") at Harvard Medical School
Donor: Leon Black

Please let me know if you have any questions whatsoever. And, please let Mr. Epstein know that we are so grateful for him for trying to expedite this gift – and of course to Mr. Black for his support! I am most appreciative for all you are doing, too.

Warmly,
Irene
