Dear Jeffrey,

I have this huge envelope of money from Karyna...

Firstly I want to say thank you , this is beyond generous of you and I was so touched and felt so loved with your concern for me...

But I also want to remind you how much you have given me, that I would never have been expecting what you thought I was getting, and that I feel extremely lucky and blessed with what you do for me. You have given beyond what I could ever have imagined, I don't want you to be concerned, I've been living a good and privileged life, (its not like I've been cooking at home every night and only taking subways...) All because of you
