Fun sounds good ... would be welcome

This week [REDACTED]” to help him address a few issues and shape some of his strategies I think he wants to be edgy. His [REDACTED] talk and I guess they liked it. Anyway it means I get to go to Paris every 2 months for a year but dunno bc it is so expensive (money/time) to get back and forth. But thinking that would be a super Cool Convening hosted by [REDACTED].

Also - maybe the thing [REDACTED] is trying has legs. I sent you the note and then asked them to send you an invite for Sept 8-9.

Want to do something really creative. [REDACTED] says YES. - they will help. Need a concept in the next few weeks. Will be in NYC Sept 17.

Also some nice things. As a “globally respected endovascular neurosurgeon” whatever that means I’ve been [REDACTED]. This years meeting is [REDACTED] in late October. It’s crazy I’ve now done almost 800 cases. I will bring along my colleague who is an interventional neuroradiologist and discuss how and when we work together etc.

Also invited to the senior surgeons meeting this year it is in Mumbai right after thanksgiving. It’s 100 of top neuro People from around the world different First lost each year but mostly talking about changes in the field (people like me breaking the field!) and any cool lessons. I’ve Collected a handful of amazing cases to discuss.

Nice to be accepted by my peers who actually keep score. On real stuff.

Also some updates on our mutual friends but nothing super major.

So hope to see you in Sept NYC

Any and all advice always welcome and appreciated

I'm grateful for your friendship all these years

[REDACTED] loved my year 1 report to the Board - they probably won't get back into science / no money

But they are allowing me a little flex for my second year. I have a few things I will need to do but if you have any ideas...

Can shape a Bellagio convening on something

Can write a report

It's small but maybe something useful can come of it
