Sounds good. If there is any more information that we can supply, please let us know.

Today, I received your Financial Plan and some bank account statements. I emailed Rich Kahn to follow up on getting the trust accounts. We filed our notice of appearance today in the Probate Court. The next filing is our Affidavit of Objections which is due September 10. I'd like to also file by then a claim for breach of fiduciary duty if the documents support it.

Would you like me to send the original emails that I paraphrased. Would this be useful and appropriate?

It will be helpful to our case if they have resisted efforts to get reasonable accountings of trust activity.

After looking through what appear to be the most relevant records, the conclusion is that Richard and I have never received the simple list of total trust income, detailed expenses, and then net income and its distribution. Since August 2017, Max has repeatedly said that he will send the information, but as yet has not done so.
