if we don't answer, we immunize them from defamation lawsuit we cannot warn them of defamation without knowing the subject they will say they emailed a rep of you with questions and received no answers unless there is a thought of denying the questions I would ignore, but if it's a TV show they will just "play" the allegations without reservation. he is apparently just covering himself re defamation what do you think? hes reached out everywhere. no contact ? makes it difficult to say i reached out and they responded no comment. ? you might ask if your interaction would be off the record as he is representing himself as a journalist. you might ask him to send his credentials and questions and though you are not my general counsel you cannot guarantee they make it to me. ? thoughts?

Hello Jackie,

I hope you don't mind me contacting you. I'm a journalist currently fact-checking a forthcoming episode of VICELAND that touches on the investigation concerning your client Jeffrey Epstein. We were hoping to approach Mr Epstein or a representative for comment regarding a number of allegations in the episode and I wondered what would be the best way to proceed. Could I possibly forward some questions to you (I'm assuming here that you still represent Mr Epstein)? Or is there someone you could put us in contact with who could assist further?

Kind regards,
Matt
